Join the new online ringing community!

Check out the new Belfry Forums!

The Belfry Forums

Why should I join?

- Have a look around the discussion boards
- Ask and find the answers to all your ringing questions
- Pop into the online pub!
- It's free and fun and for everyone

- Have a look at the forum whenever you like – the messages stay there so you can check back or even search through them
- It won't send you any emails – unless you want it to e.g. you want to watch for an answer to a particular topic
- The NRT and Conduct 5040 resources will also be there
- Get advice from experienced ringers and learners alike - all waiting to help!

Will I get loads of emails?
